Student satisfaction

Learn English in a supportive environment

This beginner-level Certificate course will teach you how to speak, read and write in English as well as understand basic numeracy. On graduating you will be able to provide personal information in English, participate in informal conversations, comprehend basic spoken and written English, leave telephone messages, read and write texts in English and understand news bulletins. Our supportive staff will also help you develop skills that you can use to continue learning the language outside the classroom.

Certificate I includes topics such as everyday survival
