OVERVIEW

Learn specialist skills to care for those with high needs

Kick start your career in aged care, home and community care or disability with this entry-level qualification. This course will give you the skills you need to provide individual care to people in home, community or health care settings. The health, aged care and community services sector is predicted to experience strong growth over the next five years with an excess of 50,000 job openings expected. This is due to an increased demand for aged care support, support for people with a disability through the National Disability Insurance Scheme
